Summary:

Updates	Comments
1. Welcome
EDR welcomed CPC members and shared the agenda.	EDR welcomed CPC members.
2. Vision Statement
EDR shared the final Vision Statement with the CPC.	The final Vision Statement was approved.

3. Policy Areas, Goals, and Recommendations

EDR presented the draft Policy Areas, Goals, and Recommendations to the CPC.

Two additional policy areas were reviewed with the CPC members in attendance. EDR will incorporate their feedback and distribute the revised goals and recommendations to the full CPC for additional input.

4. Future Land Use Map

EDR provided an overview of what a Future Land Use Map (FLUM) is and explained how it is developed.

EDR shared the draft FLUM with the CPC for feedback.

Next Steps:

- EDR will incorporate CPC feedback into the draft goals and recommendations and distribute the revised version to the CPC for additional input.
- CPC members are asked to review the draft goals and recommendations and provide their feedback by June 22nd.
- The draft FLUM will be shared with the CPC for their review.
- EDR will draft the Community Survey questions and share them with the CPC for review. We would like to open the survey to the public in July.
- CPC Meeting #6, scheduled for June 8, 2026, will be a two-hour virtual work session focused on the draft goals and recommendations. CPC members will be polled via email to determine if holding the meeting in the evening would improve participation.
